

BANK BANDITS FOILED BY GUN PLAY WOUNDED

Four Robbers Are In Hiding Near Scene Of Holdup.

CITIZENS END PLOT
Attempt to Rob Bank Near Cleveland Results In Failure.

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—Four bandits, all believed to be wounded, are in hiding in or around Cleveland today following an all night chase by Cleveland and Akron police and deputy sheriffs and other peace officers. Three of their associates in the robbery of the Bedford branch of the Cleveland Trust company late yesterday afternoon are in the hands of the police, all bearing upon their persons wounds inflicted by the courageous citizens of Bedford who fought a street battle with desperate men yesterday to save the bank's cash. The eighth member of the gang, Albert Joyce, with a long police record, was shot dead in the battle.

The robbery occurred just before 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, as the banks employees were getting ready to close their day's work. Six of the bandits entered the bank and ordered the bank staff, together with three customers who were in the bank to "hold up" their hands. Locking the bank employees and customers in a rear room, and then, at the point of a gun commanded George E. Flickinger, manager of the bank to open the vault.

Seize Currency.
This Flickinger did. When the doors of the vault were opened the bandits seized currency and coin, and carried it to a waiting automobile.
A sum afterwards ascertained to be $62,279 was taken. This was later recovered.

As the last bandit reached the door outward bound, Mrs. H. K.
Krause, a depositor who had entered the bank while the robbery was in progress, screamed. The bandits rushed for their machine. At the same instant, Flickinger, locked in the locked vault, sounded the burglar alarm.

William Petrie, an employee of the bank, rushed from the back room where he had been confined, and grabbed his revolver and fired through the grill. The bandits returned the fire and Petrie fell, seriously wounded.

During a rapid fusillade of revolver, shotgun and rifle fire from citizens of Bedford, the eight bandits made their way to their automobile just across the street from the bank.

Elvor W. Darter, a Bedford man, shot the driver of the bandit car dead. His companions then jumped from the auto and sought to make way to safety. A running battle followed the shots of the citizens mingling with those of the bandit gang.

ATTEMPT TO ROB BANK FRUSTRATED BY AKRON CASHIER

Akron, O., Oct. 22.—An attempt on the part of three bandits to rob the State Bank at Lodi was frustrated at noon today when Cashier Fisher gave the alarm.

At 12:10 a Stutz car drove up in front of the building and three men entered. Approaching the cashier's window, one of the bandits presented a $10 note asking for change. In meeting their demand, Fisher saw one of the others holding up one of his bookkeepers in the rear of the room. Instead of changing the bill, he dropped to the floor and pressed the burglar alarm.

Frightened the bandits rushed to the street, climbed into the high powered car and disappeared, followed by a posse.

which was struck by a machine driven by Bobbitt in Wilmington a short time ago. She charges that she was injured in the accident and asks for damages in the sum named.

DELIRIUM REACHED BY MACSWINEY; NEAR DEATH IS BELIEF

Passes Into Seventy First Day Of Hunger Strike
Friday.

London, Oct. 22.—Terence Mac-Swiney, the hunger striking lord mayor of Cork, passed into violent fits of delirium today during which he raved about the Irish republic. Mac-Swiney passed into the seventy-first day of his hunger strike after a restless and broken night in Brixton jail infirmary. He got about one hour's sleep, but for the most part he tossed and muttered in a semi-conscious condition.

As time passed MacSwiney's mental condition grew worse. He became so bad just before noon that Peter MacSwiney, of New York, a brother, and Mrs. MacSwiney, were hastily summoned to the jail.

"Is the Irish republic recognized yet?" the republic fully established-cried MacSwiney. His sister, Annie, who watched at the bedside soothed and comforted her brother the best she could. In an intervals of semi-consciousness MacSwiney turned to her and asked:

"What is the month? What year is it? Where am I?"

MacSwiney rested motionless for a time and then he roused himself. A light came into his glazed eyes as he muttered: "We did grand marching during the night. They marched, too, but we beat them."

"SMOKE SCREENS" USED TO BECLOUD CAMPAIGN, STATED

Prohibition Candidate Watkins Challenges Opponents.

Columbus, Oct. 22.—That some of the things which his leading opponents are attempting to make campaign issues are only "smoke screens" is the claim made by Rev. Dr. Aaron S. Watkins, prohibition candidate for president.

Watkins said that "labor, league and liquor" are the issues. He insisted that labor disputes should be settled in the courts, that he is the only dry among the presidential candidates and said he favors the present league of nations with reservations.

"Cox says the liquor question is as dead as slavery, but he ought to know there are no slaves in the cellars of people and nobody is trying to get slavery back," said Watkins.

HARDING SURE NEW YORK WILL GO REPUBLICAN

Senator Returning to Marion After Talk In Eastern State.

TO STAY IN OHIO
Nominee to Confine Trips To Home State From Now On

En Route to Marion Ohio. With Senator Harding, Oct. 22.—With the major part of his campaign definitely behind him Senator Warren G. Harding is returning to his Marion front porch today feeling more confident than ever that eleven days hence the voters of the nation will go to the polls and register an overwhelming Republican victory.

The confidence the Republican candidate feels in the result on Nov. 2, is manifested in his informal talks with newspaper correspondents and by fact that he does not consider it necessary to again stir outside Ohio for the duration of the campaign. Senator Harding's speeches at Buffalo and Rochester marked his last invasion of outside territory and from now on the senator will confine his activities to the state, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus and Akron will see him during the closing days of October and the rest of the time the senator will spend quietly at Marion.

Strong representations were made to Senator Harding to extend his trip into New York City, but it was felt by him and his managers that this was not necessary. New York state leaders, including Nathaniel Miller, candidate for governor and Charles D.
Hilles, national committeeman, speeded Senator Harding on his way with assurances that New York state is republican this year by an overwhelming majority. Some estimates ran as high as 100,000 for the national ticket. Senator Harding's special train left Buffalo at midnight, passed through Cleveland at an early hour this morning and was due to arrive in Marion before noon.

BOY IS INSTANTLY KILLED BY MACHINE ON JAMESTOWN PIKE

Colored Lad, Aged 10, Is Struck By Auto Near Home, Friday.

Elwood Thompson, aged 10, colored, was instantly killed in front of his home on the Jamestown pike, in the Cowan addition at the edge of the city, Friday noon, when he was struck by a Buick roadster, driven by B. R.
Jones of Middletown.

The accident occurred in view of his mother who was watching from the house. He was killed instantly, it is thought, as an examination made by Drs. H. R. Hawkins and Dr. C. H.
Lindsay showed that the boy's neck was broken.

B. R. Jones, driver of the machine, on learning that the boy had been killed hurried into the city where he gave himself up at the sheriff's office.
In the meantime Chief of Police Graham and City Manager Kenyon Riddle hurried to the scene in search of the man, and are holding his automobile at police headquarters. Jones was detained at the sheriff's office pending the arrival of Coroner R. L. Haines, who was notified immediately.

According to the story told authorities by Jones, the boy was on top of a wagon, and he jumped from the vehicle into the road directly in the path of the machine. The driver alleges that he was unable to avoid striking the boy.

According to eye-witnesses the machine was travelling fast, but authorities expressed the opinion that the accident would have been unavoidable even if the machine had been going slower. An investigation made by the police showed that the car skidded for 168 feet after the driver had applied the brakes, following the accident.

The victim is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson, by two brothers, Clifford and James,
and a sister.

NO PLAN TO RESTRICT CREDIT SAYS BOARD

Governor Harding, of Federal Reserve Board, Refutes Charge That League is Endeavoring Through the Board to Further Plan.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Charges that the League of Nations "through existing central banking institutions throughout the world" is endeavoring to create a condition of drastic credit restriction made in a bulletin of the first federal foreign banking association today were brought to the attention of Governor Harding of the federal reserve board.

"The federal reserve board is not a party to such a plan and the charge that the board is restricting credit is not based on facts," Gov.
Harding declared.

"During the first nine months of this year, seventy percent of the member bank resources have increased their loans for agricultural and commercial purposes to an amount exceeding $1,800,000,000."

The charge made by the foreign banking association in its bulletin was made public here today by the Washington bureau of the Manufacturers Record in which publication it will appear this week.

"England is officially forcing up the costs of credits and financing and this is apparently a general policy advocated under the auspices of the League of Nations."

"Under authority of the League a propaganda of international deflation has been launched in the form of some notably interesting and important studies of the subject by the most eminent economists in Europe," the bank bulletin is quoted as declaring.

"This action was taken in advance of an international conference of finance but the league seems to be already committed to a policy of drastic credit restriction through existing central banking institutions," the bulletin continues.

The new members reported at the

So enthusiastic were the team workers at the luncheon Friday that they have raised their slogan, to work for this number. The teams have decided to work two or three days the first of next week, in increasing the membership to fifty members.

John R. Knebone, campaign manager from the American City Bureau who conducted the extension membership campaign here said Friday:
"The first year's work of the Xenia Chamber of Commerce cannot be equalled by the first year work of any Chamber of Commerce in the United States during the past year, in the amount of work taken up and accomplished by active committees. The plans for the second year indicate that the citizens of Xenia will have even greater reason to be proud of their organization at the end of this year's work."

Mr. Knebone will leave Friday night for the offices of the American City Bureau at Chicago, from where he will go to Oskawville, Iowa, to put on a membership campaign.

Governor Cox saw in the morning newspapers, Mr. Root's reply to his telegram of Tuesday demanding a retraction of the assertion that he stands for the League of Nations as President Wilson brought it back from France. The actual copy of Mr.
Root's message however, had not denied they had any knowledge of the raid. No explanation was made of the numerous raids.

WORST TIE-UP IN HISTORY OF WORLD IS NEAR

Railwaymen and Transport Workers To Join Coal Miners.

INVOLVES 2,500,000

Crisis Will Come Sunday Night Unless Demands
Are Met.

London, Oct. 22.—The most gigantic industrial tie-up that any great country has ever known menaced Great Britain today as a result of the threat of the railwaymen and the transport workers to join the coal miners in a general strike unless the government takes decisive steps within 48 hours to end the walkout in the coal fields.

A general strike by the "triple alliance"—miners, railroad men and transport workers—would call out nearly 2,500,000 men in addition to thousands of thousands of other workers into involuntary idleness.
Premier Lloyd George and the cabinet discussed the situation today and were making vigorous efforts to create a foundation on which to open negotiations in which to end the coal strike and prevent a spread of the strike to the railmen and to the dock workers.

The "ultimatum" to the British government threatening a strike of railroaders and dock workers was served by J. T. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and Robert Williams, secretary of the Federation of Transport Workers.

Crisis Reached.
"The crisis has been reached," declared Thomas. "We are giving the government until Sunday night to end the coal strike or to take definite steps for the calling of a conference which will guarantee its end."

Williams, speaking in behalf of the dock workers, said the men had decided to quit work unless the government acted on industrial peace by Sunday morning.

Unofficial estimates of the number of men directly involved in a general strike of the "triple alliance" were:
Coal miners and helpers 1,200,000.
Railway employees 650,000 to 700, 000.
Dock workers 350,000.

Fears that the struggle will develop into an "industrial revolution" with demands for the complete nationalization of certain branches of industry, notably, the mines and railways, were intensified by the action of the rail-waymen and the transport workers. If the railmen and the dock workers make the tie-up complete Great Brittain is threatened with a suspension of rail traffic, maritime traffic and absolute stagnation of all factories as well as a fuel famine and an acute food shortage.

Premier Hopeful.
Premier Lloyd George was hopeful that a difficulty would be found out of the grave difficulty but he admitted that the situation has been rendered desperately serious by the action of the railway and dock employees by deciding upon a sympathy strike.

It is estimated that about 250,000 workers outside of the coal fields, including 75,000 dock employees, have already been forced into idleness by the coal strike which closed down factories and compelled a curtailment of rail traffic and maritime shipping schedules.

The executive committee of the National Union of Railwaymen met again this morning.

the League of Nations and flayed the the Jamestown Band furnished music that it was not Col. Ralph D. Cole has not yet returned to this state following a speaking tour and was unable to be present at the meeting.

MRS. JOHN POLITICS- INDEPENDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Politics have been residents of Greene county all their lives. Mr. Politics was a farmer and had been very successful in his chosen profession. He was a prominent church member, a member of several lodges, had been an active spirit in public affairs, and had been elected to office two or three times, and, as might be expected, was an ardent supporter of one of the leading political parties. While not a "wet" man yet his attitude on the temperance issue was somewhat neutral. He did not regard it good policy for him to come out openly for the "drys." Like so many otherwise good men he had a tendency to put party and policy before principle.

Mrs. Politics was a woman of fine appearance and of remarkable intelligence, and above all else that might be said to her credit she was a truly Christian woman, a great worker in the church, a leader in the temperance cause and a prominent member of various women's organizations. She cared for the solid, worthwhile things of life rather than the mere giddy, butterfly social life that engrossed the entire attention of so many. She was intensely interested in home and her children. Up to the time of our story she had taken little interest in political affairs excepting the temperance question, believing that such matters really belonged to men. She had never favored giving the ballot to women, fearing that it might not be of beneficial effect upon members of her sex to have much to do with politics. This was perhaps due largely to the influence under which she had been reared rather than to any careful study of the matter. However, she was a student and read the best papers and magazines, and had not failed to note the trend of sentiment and had come to see that sooner or later women were going to be given the ballot. Little was ever said upon the subject between husband and wife, but she had been carefully informing herself, realizing that if the ballot came to women that it would place upon her a responsibility that could not be properly ignored. She was a very ardent supporter of the temperance cause and had always endeavored to place principle before policy.

As the presidential election of 1920 approached Mr. Politics suddenly awoke one day to the fact that women had been given the ballot, and that therefore his wife was now on equal footing with himself, and felt no little anxiety as to what attitude his wife might take. As may be realized he was naturally anxious that his wife would line up with his party and it caused him no little concern, as he was aware that his wife had a mind of her own, and though never in a hurry to arrive at a decision, yet having once formed her opinion, she stood firm, and was always able to defend her position with clearness and force. Hoping that he might have some influence in turning her into what he believed to be the proper political channel he did not wait many days before approaching her on the subject.

(Tomorrow, Mrs. Politics tells whether she is going to vote.)

Dizziness Causes Fall—Head Injured

"A year ago my stomach bloated so badly with gas that I felt unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for my stomach trouble. The results have been really wonderful. I have never had any sign of my former symptoms since. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Rich Blood Secret Of Good Health

Here Is A Suggestion Along That Line

Thin, impoverished blood results in pale, sallow complexions, run-down anemic conditions, and leaves one without strength, energy or ambition. Lots of people here think that the one great remedy for this condition is Vinol, that non-secret cod liver and iron tonic without oil, which with the beef peptones and glycerophosphates contained in it, acts very quickly in creating thousands of red corpuscles in the blood. It quickens the circulation, increases the appetite, aids digestion, and in this natural manner creates strength, vitality and energy. Hundreds of people in this vicinity have testified to its value.

WARNING
Information has come to this club from several sources that emissaries of the Democratic Party are attempting to cause voters to lose their votes for Warren G. Harding by misinforming them how to vote the National Ticket. BE NOT DECEIVED. This is but one of the many underhanded devices the Democratic Party is resorting to, in the closing days of the campaign, in its despairing and useless efforts to prevent defeat. THERE IS BUT ONE WAY FOR A REPUBLICAN TO VOTE THE NATIONAL TICKET AND THAT IS TO PUT A CROSS IN THE CIRCLE UNDER THE EAGLE. Any other mark is entirely unnecessary and will result either in the loss of your vote altogether, or in splitting your vote between the Republican candidate and the Single Tax or some other candidate.

ARE WOMEN NATURALLY DESPONDENT?
A prominent writer so claims. FEAR THAT LLOYD GEORGE HAS MISLAID HIS COPY OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

In Britain the "estates of the realm" are again in session. The king's "great council" without whose good will and assent he can make no law, raise no tax and continue no ministry in office, has assembled to consider the state of the United Kingdom, the empire and the dominions beyond the seas.

From what we have heard in this country in the last few months of what is pressing upon the minds and hearts of peoples the world over, it might be assumed that only one question could possibly be considered by the parliament at Westminster. Mr. Cox and President Wilson, Franklin Roosevelt and the whole Democratic organization with a few college professors and unattached sentimentalists thrown in, have been telling us for months that Europe and the world have discontinued all other business and have been waiting with tightly held breath for the League of Nations to come and give them the kiss of peace, its blessing and maybe some seed potatoes. If the facts have been correctly represented there can be but one order of business before the British parliament, and that will be to determine by what means the coming of the reign of the League of Nations in the world can be hastened.

But curiously enough we find no reference to this important subject in the proceedings at Westminster. Parliament is considering secondary matters wholly. The chief thing that seems to be worrying the government and the lawmakers is how to solve an industrial situation that threatens to leave the British Islands without coal and transportation this winter. There is a strike in Britain, and the government and the people seem to think it ought to be taken up and settled somehow.

It is just possible, of course, that Mr. Lloyd George doesn't know that the League of Nations has abolished strikes. With so many other things on his mind that important fact may have been crowded out. If he hadn't forgotten it, or hadn't mislaid his copy of the league covenant, all he would have to do in this crisis would be to notify the league secretariat that Britain was out of coal. Sir Eric Drummond, the secretary general, would instantly leave his tea, press the league button marked "Industrial Disturbance—Ring Once," and with a rapid whir the league machinery would revolve automatically putting in full operation every coal mine in Britain.

Instead of using that simple method, fully worked out and recommended by the league which guarantees its own goods, the British parliament is trying to handle the problem itself. Its action will be a severe blow to Mr. Cox and probably will break the world's heart. But it's like the British. They are practical to the point of selfishness. They would rather get coal to keep themselves from freezing than adopt resolutions of confidence in the league's patent non-fuel consuming foot warmer.—Kansas City Star.

THE HARVEST IS GREAT.

There is reason for general rejoicing in the prediction of bountiful food crops for the present year. The latest estimate by the department of agriculture places the yield of corn this year at nearly 100 million bushels above the previous record, the indicated total being well in excess of 3 billion bushels. Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri will contribute practically all the increase of 300 million bushels over the crop of last year.

But corn does not tell the whole story. The yield of oats is near a record, and nearly 200 million bushels above last year's showing; and although the yield of wheat is short compared with the big crop a year ago, the harvest of this cereal is well in line with good crops of the last decade. Potatoes have been plentiful and will be for the coming winter, and the season now closing has been most favorable for vegetable crops generally.

It is of course true that the prospect of immense grain crops has been the immediate factor in the recent slump in grain prices, and in some ways this has without doubt been a misfortune to the farmers. The farmer has produced his grain with high priced labor and materials and now, like the man who bought his merchandise at the prices of last spring, he must suffer a certain loss, while the country as a whole will receive unquestioned benefit from the break in living costs.

THE SPEED FIENDS.

In vain I stand protesting to speed fiends as they pass; they seem to think I'm jesting, and give their boats more gas. The coroner is busy, he's checking up the dead, run down by truck or lizzie or auto painted red. The coroner is weary, he toils by day and night; his task is sad and dreary, and there's no end in sight. The village cops are chasing the fiends o'er hill and dale, and after bitter racing they put a few in jail. And then they're fined so lightly they think it all a joke, and leave the courtroom brightly, and make their autos smoke. Through highways residential, through traffic's busy marts, with ardor pestilential they run their deadly carts. They wing the fleeing baker, they maim the frightened clerk, and now the undertaker gets in his grewsome work. The doctors' nerves are busted, so many victims yelp, the coroner's disgusted, and wildly calls for help. And still the crazy motors go rushing through the town, and slay the adult voters, and mow the children down. And when I stand protesting to speed fiends scorn my rhyme, and jauntily go questing for some one they can climb.

DRY WEATHER MAKES WHEAT SITUATION SERIOUS; BELIEF

The continued drought which has lasted since the first week in September is causing great dismay among farmers who have seeded wheat according to County Agent Ford S. Prince.

The land has been very dry and hard and difficult to prepare for wheat and much of the ground is so very dry that wheat is not coming through the ground. The wheat that is already up is not growing as it should.

If cold weather should set in soon it might spell disaster for a great deal of Greene County wheat, says Mr. Prince.

A fact which makes the situation all the more serious is the Hessian fly which has laid its eggs in volunteer wheat. Although the seeding date, October 1, was correct to keep the September brood of fly from infesting wheat seeded this fall, the continued hot weather will allow the fly to volunteer wheat to emerge yet this fall and infest our wheat which has been seeded after October 1.

This is a thing which does not usually happen but is certain to do so unless the weather changes soon is Mr. Prince's opinion. "Taken all in all, the wheat prospect for 1921 is not very bright," says the county agent.

The animals were purchased largely by Greene County farmers but some went as far as Indiana. The auctioneers were Colonels Arthur Spauld of Zionsville, Ind., Boyd of Mt. Victory, O., John Pease of Vandalia, O., and Eckles of Madison Mills, O.

GOT RELIEF FROM TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Would wake him up during the night and could not resist scratching, which caused great sores. Declares the root and herb remedy, Drecto, has driven it from his system.

"I hope some person who suffers from eczema will read what I have to say and will be led to try this great medicine, Drecto," are the words of Mr. L. A. Collins, one of Marion, O., best citizens, who owns a big farm four miles from this city.

My life has been a misery for years on account of this terrible "itching disease," he continued, "why it would wake me up at night itching and burning like fire. I could not resist scratching, as that seemed to relieve it, but this made big sores all over my body. I've tried ointments, creams, lotions, everything recommended to cure eczema—but without success."

"I decided to try Drecto, which was claimed to be a blood purifier and system cleanser, and Drecto is what has given me such wonderful relief. It has stopped the itching and burning; also dried up the sores and today I am absolutely free from eczema. Drecto also cleaned my liver off; stopped the dizzy spells; quieted my nerves so that I could sleep well, and has created a splendid appetite. I certainly praise Drecto at every opportunity."

Drecto is made from herbal plants which clear the impurities from the blood; rouse a lazy liver to action; strengthen weak kidneys; aids the stomach to digest the food and relieves constipation.

All druggists now sell Drecto and it is being especially introduced in Xenia at Sohn's Drug Store.

Take the Hills on HYVIS

IT'S when you take a long, steep hill—when your car literally lifts itself by its bootstraps—that every ounce of friction, every heating bearing and every carbonized cylinder make audible protest. You "give her the gas" but it's oil your motor wants, good oil that does NOT "break down" under the test, but smooths the way for every laboring part.

It's then you can "feel" HYVIS work in the way it gives free play to turning shaft and sliding piston and you sail up the hill—on HYVIS—like a swallow.

Wherever there's a garage with the red, black and yellow sign with the little oil man at the top, there you will find a HYVIS Service Station.

TWIN BROTHERS ENGAGED IN THE SAME PROFESSION ARE AS LIKE AS TWO PEAS

L. H. Riddle, 45 South Lexington avenue, St. Paul, Minn., bears the unique distinction of not only being the father of twins, but of twin city managers.

Mr. Riddle is the father of Kenyon Riddle, this city, manager of Xenia, and when the local manager's twin brother, Karl Riddle, decided to give up his engineering business in Abilene, Kansas and accept the position of city manager of West Palm Beach, Fla., he saw his second son go into this new home town of Abilene, he was styled engineer manager of the city and he was a member of the committee which framed the special bill legalizing the city manager plan of government in the state of Kansas. Under this act eight cities of that state are employing city managers. Mr. Riddle came here as city manager when this city adopted the commission-manager plan of government and he started on his work here Jan. 1, 1918.

Karl Riddle is a new addition to the field of city managers. He was for a time after graduation county engineer of Dickinson county, Kansas and later a member of the engineering firm of Riddle & Riddle, being at the time of his selection of manager at West Palm Beach, engaged in the construction of hard surfaced roads in his county.

Kenyon Riddle, of this city, was with his brother, when the latter ac-

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF FRANK LISZT October 22, 1811

Franz Liszt makes a three-fold appeal to music lovers—he was one of the greatest pianists in history, he was a prolific composer, and the conductor who brought out Wagner and Wagner's music.

He was born in Hungary in 1811 and showed such amazing talent that some wealthy men gave enough money for him to study. He gave public recitals when he was 11, and by the time he was 14 he had toured Europe and made an enormous reputation. He had even written an opera which was performed in Paris.

When Liszt was 20 the marvelous violinist Paganini appeared in Paris. His perfect technique seem to have inspired Liszt to make his own piano playing equally brilliant. Then Liszt became supreme in his field as Paganini was in his. Wherever he went the young and handsome pianist was greeted with frantic enthusiasm.

He helped bring out Wagner and afterwards married one of his daughters to the younger musician. Liszt wrote an enormous number of pieces among them 15 "Hungarian Rhapsodies." He died in 1886.

BUSINESS MEN WILL MEET R. R. OFFICIALS ON INSPECTION TOUR

A committee of business men from the Xenia Chamber of Commerce will meet officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad when they visit city next Monday on the first track inspection tour of the road to be held in three years.

The Committee on Committees of the Chamber of Commerce appointed the following reception committee to meet the officials while they are in this city: Frank W. Dodds, chairman, Dr. A. C. Messenger, J. A. Chew, John E. Daly, George R. Kelly, C. A. Weaver and R. S. Kingsbury. The inspection party will be headed by General Manager I. W. Geer of the Southwestern Region with headquarters at St. Louis and will consist of company officials of the Southwestern Region, with headquarters at St. Louis and will consist of company officials of this division. After the tour of inspection prizes will be awarded maintenance of way employees for the best section of track in the division.

The annual track inspection tours and the award of prizes was abandoned three years ago but with the return of the railroads to private management and the progress that is being made to get back to more normal conditions, it was felt that these officials and former employees of the track maintenance work should be resumed. Railroad officials believe that they exert a powerful moral effect upon the track forces, both officials and employees, and that they have stimulated healthy rivalry for excellence.

Cash sums of varying amounts will be awarded to Supervisors and their assistants who during the year have maintained the best sections of track on the several divisions. There will also be awarded improvement prizes to Supervisors and their assistants whose section of track have shown the most improvement during the year.

The inspection of the Southwestern Region, which affects this section, will be begun Monday, going from Richmond, Ind., to Columbus and Cincinnati, on Monday, the officials stopping at the Regal Hotel here Monday night and continuing their inspection from this city to Terre Haute, Ind., on Tuesday and from Terre Haute to St. Louis on Wednesday. Track prizes will be awarded immediately after the inspection tour.

ORGANIZE SOCIETY AGAINST PROFANITY

The Holy Name Society of St. Brigid's Church, an organization of men banded together with the purpose of discouraging the use of profanity, will be recognized and participate in special services at the Church Sunday.

The Society will receive Communion in a body Sunday morning after marching into the church from the school auditorium at 6:45 o'clock. New members will be received during the day in the extension campaign. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock there will be Rosary devotions at the church, a sermon by Rev. Joseph Tetzlaff, S. N., reception to new members, and the benediction followed by the renewal of the Holy Name pledge. Election of officers in the Society will take place at the school hall following the services.

SPECIAL CAR WILL TAKE TEAM TO PIQUA

A special traction car has been chartered by the management of the Xenia Maroons to convey players and the delegation of fans that will accompany them to Piqua for the game to be played there Sunday afternoon.

The car will leave the traction station here at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning and will go straight through to Piqua. A round trip price of $2.00 will be charged, and it is expected that many fans will take advantage of the opportunity to accompany the team into the foreign territory for the first time this season.

The Maroons have won four games at home this season, but in playing Piqua they are running up against a strong club and it will be the test of the locals whether they are going to be able to maintain their record on a foreign oblong.

LOCAL SPRINGFIELD TERMINAL NOT TO BE DISCONTINUED HERE

That the Springfield Terminal Railway Company, which has suspended operations, is not the interurban line which runs between Springfield and Xenia, is the statement that is made necessary by repeated calls at the local office asking if the Springfield service on the local line has been discontinued.

The Springfield Terminal Company operates out of Springfield, and serves territory north of that city and toward Troy. The name of the local line, for the benefit of those who were confused by the story of the suspension, is the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Railway Co., and the suspension of the Springfield line has no bearing on the operations of this company nor does it affect interurban service between Xenia and Springfield.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to the time of the Pharaohs. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

GREAT SUM SAVED PEOPLE BY DROPPING RAILWAYS, REPORT

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.—The government's action in returning the railroads to private control on March 1, saved the people a large amount of money, declared Samuel M. Felton, president of the Chicago and Great Western Railroad, last night before the Chamber of Commerce. If government operation had been continued he added, the deficit which the government would have had to pay would have been far larger than the amount it will have to pay for the six months of operation from March 1 to Sept. 1.

"Recently widespread publicity has been given to the fact that since the railroads were returned to private operation they have been incurring a large deficit, estimated to be in excess of $600,000,000, which the taxpayers will have to pay. The implication is that the loss to the public during these six months was much more than it would have been if government operation had been continued."

"I am prepared to maintain, on the basis of the showing made by the railroad administration in the closing months of government control that, if the government operation had been continued, the deficit in these six months would have been much larger than it was under private operation."

He cited among causes of increased expenses the higher wages paid employees and increased prices of coal. He declared there had been greater efficiency since the roads took back the lines from the government.

PARISH FOOTBALL SQUAD WILL PLAY

St. Brigid's Meteors, the newly organized Parish football team will get its gridiron baptism at Reserve Park Sunday, during the absence of the Xenia Maroons, when the New team tackles the Dayton Saxons.

The visiting aggregation is rated as the fastest team of its size in Dayton, playing at 125 pounds. That this combination will give the locals plenty of action for its natal combat is assured when the teams open up action at the yard Sunday at 2:30 o'clock.

George Haller and Lawrence Rachford have been coaching the local combination nightly for the past three weeks, interspersing the daily scrimmage with skill practice and black board stuff twice weekly. Last Sunday the team defeated a team of scrubs by the score of 18-12.

In the lineup of the locals will appear F. Leahey, at left end; L. Rachford at left tackle; Geiger at left guard; J. Rachford at center; Canny at right guard; Hilliard at right tackle; Gallagher at right end; Neville will call the signals, while left half will be taken care of by Hollen-camp with E. Leahey or Heery his running mate. Kelble will be used at full back and Brennan and Toohy will be held in reserve.

OHIO'S AUTO LOSSES ARE ENORMOUS

Ohio's auto losses alone would pay the annual expenses of a rural police system eight times over. This year's auto loss, estimated from thefts reported to date, will exceed $4,000,000. Rural police would cost $497,300.

Cleveland alone shows 1,670 autos stolen in eight months, valued at approximately $3,340,000. The value of those not recovered is placed at $1,188,000.

XENIA RANKS 49 AMONG 63 CITIES IN TEACHERS' SALARIES

School conditions in this city, are shown in the report of the National Committee for Chamber of Commerce Cooperation with the Public Schools. This committee was organized about a year ago, being composed partly of Chamber of Commerce secretaries in big Chambers and of Superintendents of Schools all over the country. The committee is working to the betterment of the national school system and issues the following story:

Is Xenia meeting the public school crisis?

American standards are endangered by the present low salaries of teachers. Xenia is paying her elementary school teachers $48 a year which ranks her 49 among 63 cities of from 8,000 to 30,000 in the Great Lakes States. In 1914, the public school teachers of Xenia received but $593 a year making her increase during the War period $255 or 43 percent. The average increase in teachers' salaries the country over for this period has been 61 percent. The increase in the cost of living meanwhile has been 104 per cent. Xenia plans a further increase in 1920 of 30 per cent which compares favorably with the efforts of other cities. It must be remembered, however, that the salaries of teachers of all grades were very low before the war and the present increase does not actually raise the salaries to the average of most grades. Xenia elementary teachers rank 37 in this group as regards their preparation and 37 in point of experience.

Xenia therefore makes a better showing than many other cities in this region but she is not keeping pace with more progressive cities. Only by further effort can she improve her position and become one of leading cities. Her relative position can readily be forced up or down by the action of neighboring communities. If they outbid her, Xenia will be obliged to accept emergency teachers. An energetic campaign will quickly advance her to a much better strategic position.

FILES SUIT AGAINST CITY ON FRIDAY

James Considine is the plaintiff in an action filed in Common Pleas Court Friday morning against the City of Xenia and J. C. Mercer, asking for an injunction to prevent the construction of a sewer across his property on Lynn and High streets.

The petition alleges that the plaintiff granted an easement to the defendants to permit them to construct the sewer across his property, but that he did so without fully understanding the terms of the agreement, which he believes now are unfavorable to him. He asks that the injunction be made permanent.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Harry D. Smith.

FILES ACCOUNTING.

M. E. Evans, administrator of the estate of Mary E. Evans, filed his first and final accounting in Probate Court Thursday.

"HOW WELL YOU LOOK"

When Your Blood Is Rich and Red People Notice Your Good Health

PEPTO-MANGAN BUILDS HEALTH

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping Shoulders, Result From Clogged Blood

If your blood is in bad shape it shows up in your looks and feeling. When your blood is rich with red corpuscles, your color is better—your lips are red, eyes wide open and bright; your good feeling shows in your actions.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality. If your vitality is low you have little power to resist disease germs. Men, women and children with rich, red blood are able to fight off the germs which bring severe illness.

When you feel run down and weak with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-Mangan for a while. It is a great blood building tonic. You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer, because they have the same medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package.—Adv.

ASKS JUDGMENT IN SUIT FILED

Suit was filed in Common Pleas Court Friday, by Frank Hubell, against John T. Barnett asking judgment in the sum of $395.75 with interest at six per cent from May 10, 1916, less credits of $150 paid.

The amount is alleged due on a promissory note executed on the above date for the sum of $395.75 for 90 days and supposed to bear interest at six per cent from its maturity. Since that time, according to the petitions, only $150 has been paid on the note, and the plaintiff asks judgment for the balance of the sum. He is represented by Miller & Finney.

DYE SPENDS TIME ATTACKING S. D. FESS

Attacking the Congressional record of his opponent, Congressman S. D. Fess declaiming in favor of Soldiers Compensation Bill, Lieutenant Paul F. Dye, of Urbana, Democratic candidate for Congress in this Seventh District, spoke to an audience of about 500 people at a Democratic meeting at the Opera House Thursday night.

Mrs. Mary M. Tully, of Mechanicsburg who followed Lieutenant Dye on the program, spoke mainly on the much talked of League of Nations, giving a clear and concise explanation of the document basing her remarks on the articles disputed by the Republican party, urging that each of her listeners read the covenant and decide for themselves and use ordinary thought and a dictionary if necessary in interpreting the tract.

Paying a tribute to Ralph D. Cole, Dye said, "Col. Cole was one of the few field officers who could be found up in the front trenches with his men and not back in a thirty-foot dug out playing bridge. There is no man in the state more deserving to sit in the gubernatorial chair than Ralph D. Cole," he said. Defending his youth, he said: "I firmly believe if you had a few young men in Congress instead of a bunch of old men playing penny there would have been something done."

The speakers were introduced by Judge E. Dawson Smith. Directly after the address of Lieutenant Dye, he left for Jeffersonville where he made a speech also Thursday evening. Judge Smith in his remarks announced the meeting Saturday night at the Opera House when Vice

Away from the plaudits of the fans and dressed in their "civies" the big league baseball stars called by the grand jury at Chicago in the baseball "fixing" probe, appeared in a different light to the crowds that hung about the courthouse. The players called merely as witnesses were surrounded by crowds while not in the jury room. President Heydler of the National league and Roger Bresnahan, former big league catcher and manager, were among the notables who gave the jury facts on the gambling situation.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

ZENA MAKES HER DECISION

Chapter 149
I thought a good deal of what Frank Claxton had said. He had every respect for a woman who worked—because she had to. I knew from my own experience and observation that this was so—that every girl and woman in his employ was not only treated with the greatest respect by him, but that he compelled the same attitude from the men in his office. But, like Mother, he thought the real place for a woman was at home. I wondered if all men, no matter what their station, felt this way. And I concluded that they did.

There was Tom, poor, uneducated (in the sense we use the word) clerk in a coffee house until he met Mary, now running a small eating room, who felt just the same as did Frank Claxton, the broker. Perhaps it was a good thing there were not men enough to go around if they all felt the same. It would be terribly hard on women who cared more for their independence than for a man or a home. My thoughts always hesitated when I came to that.

Mother once had said: "There are women, girls, who should be wives and mothers. You are one of that sort, Zena. You think you are a business woman. You are now. But it isn't your vocation, although it is your present necessity. You are a potential mother, just as I was, my dear."

All these things, conversations with Mother and Aunt Susan were disturbing elements in my life, although it was farthest from their thoughts to make them so. They both tried to spoil me, to save me from all kinds of anxieties and worries as far as they were able. Mother made my salary go farther than I ever could have hoped to; Aunt Susan kept us well and good tempered by her delicious and economic cooking. I was so much better off than most girls who had no home, so much happier than I was when I lived in one room and cooked my scanty meals over the gas jet that I felt guilty to even feel depressed and unhappy.

And every one was so good to me. Frank Claxton was so thoughtful, so kind, that I used to say to myself—it hurts. Mother and Aunt Susan Tom and Mary, even Mr. Betts and Jennie Wilcox seemed always to be doing something for me—something unusual. I may have given things undue importance because of my state of mind; but it seemed to me that everyone was making life pleasant for me, here in Chicago. And so making it hard for me to tear myself away!

Mother talked often of our old life in New York when Dad was alive. She spoke of our old friends, especially the young people with whom I associated. She seemed only to regret our lost fortune, our position, for my sake. Her grief at Dad's loss had never lessened and to her it overshadowed everything else even after so long a time.

"I wonder if he—knows," she said one day when we were talking of Kenneth.

"Of course he knows, Dear—has known all that has happened, every single thing."
"I feel that way, too," I told her. "I have felt Dad so near me at times that I almost believed he was really beside me—that he never had left us. I am sure he knows we are happy."
"But are you happy, Zena?"
"Yes, Mother, happy to be with you. And later, Dear, when I have written Kenneth, I shall be less rest less."

Does it seem that my story is tame? If so the only excuse I have is that I have nothing to record at this time save Frank Claxton's goodness, and my uncertainty.

On my birthday, Kenneth had sent me a long letter, filled with good wishes. If I was disappointed that he had not remembered me in any other way, I tried not to allow myself to feel it. But when a box of lovely flowers and a late and popular book came from Frank Claxton, I couldn't help wishing Kenneth had sent me some trifle—a book, a box of bonbons—anything.

"But I wouldn't allow myself to dwell upon thought derogatory to Kenneth. He was so far away."

So I struggled. And daily the struggle grew harder; my strength to carry on, less. Then one night came the thought, awakening illuminating—

I had no right to hesitate. I was cheating both Kenneth and myself. Tomorrow — A Letter to Kenneth
